Cryptocurrencies: Advisory and Litigation issues

Please join us as Ben Symons, an experienced barrister specialising in UK taxation law, will be delivering an insightful talk. He has extensive experience advising and litigating tax matters for high net worth individuals and particularly on all tax matters relating to non-domiciled individuals, offshore trusts and the taxation of carried interest. Ben has handled many high profile matters for high net worth individuals and corporates including advising a wealthy non-domiciled crypto entrepreneur in relation to his tax obligations relating to a transaction valued at over £100 million. Ben has been a member of the Attorney General’s London C Panel since September 2024. Ben is ranked as a Band 2 Cryptocurrency Junior by Chambers & Partners and is the author of Tax Insight: Cryptocurrency and Blockchain published by Bloomsbury Professional, showcasing his deep understanding of cryptocurrency taxation. In addition to tax law, This event is a unique opportunity to hear from one of the UK’s leading experts and gain valuable insights into the complexities of taxation and cryptocurrency.
